

2010 Award Recipients

GREGER AWARD: For exemplary service to NOVAA as a Professional Organization

This award honors volunteer management professionals who have given extraordinary service to NOVAA in its development as a professional organization and effectively serving its members. It is named for Gay Greger, a former volunteer manager for the Portland Parks and Recreation Department. Her involvement in the Multnomah County Volunteer Program Managers Association, which evolved into NOVAA, exemplifies service to a professional organization. With her dedication to seeing volunteer program managers recognized as professionals, she set the standard for NOVAA members to serve their organization and the profession effectively.

The recipient of the Greger Award is Gretchen Jordan, CVA

LEADERSHIP AWARD: For exemplary service to NOVAA through service on the Board of Directors

This award honors a member of the NOVAA Board of Directors for extraordinary service to the organization as a board member. The Leadership Award acknowledges a personal commitment of time, resources and professionalism to the organization, resulting in an elevation of status for the organization through the individual's efforts and guidance.

The recipient of the Leadership Award is Jackie Eggers, CVA

LUCKE AWARD: For exemplary service to the profession of Volunteer Management

This award honors volunteer management professionals who exemplify the spirit and commitment of furthering the volunteer management profession. The award's namesake, Elma Lucke, Recruitment Director for the Columbia River Girl Scout Council, 1977-85, was one of several Portland-area volunteer managers who began meeting regularly with newcomers to the field of volunteer management to share personal expertise and exchange information and ideas. This honor is bestowed on a volunteer management professional who has followed in Elma's footsteps through extraordinary service to their organization, the profession, and mentorship to others.

The recipient of the Lucke Award is Sarah Harrison
